1. Information about the indicator
Goal	To promote the progressive, inclusive and sustainable growth of active legal entities covered by the employee's compulsory accident insurance system, with the exception of government agencies.
Task	Protect the labor rights of employees in the field of compulsory employee accident insurance.
The indicator	The proportion of enterprises covered by the employee's compulsory accident insurance system, with the exception of government agencies.
2. Information about the organization
Organization	Ministry of Labor and Social Protection of the Population of the Republic of Kazakhstan
3. Definitions and concepts
Definition	insurance of an employee against accidents is a complex of relations for the protection of the property interests of an employee whose life and health have been harmed in the performance of his labor (official) duties.;
Basic concepts:	insurance of an employee against accidents is a complex of relations for the protection of the property interests of an employee whose life and health have been harmed in the performance of his labor (official) duties.;
Justification and interpretation	Forecasting the level of coverage of the employee's compulsory accident insurance system, with the exception of government agencies (as a percentage of the total number of active legal entities covered by the employee's compulsory accident insurance system, with the exception of government agencies)
4. Data sources and collection methods
Data sources	Data from the National Bank of the Republic of Kazakhstan, Bureau of National Statistics
Data collection methods	Data from the National Bank of the Republic of Kazakhstan, Bureau of National Statistics
Unit of measure ment	Percent
Periodicity	Annual
5. Calculation method and other methodological considerations
Calculation method:	The indicator "The proportion of active legal entities covered by the employee's compulsory accident insurance system, with the exception of government agencies" is calculated using the following formula: B A = ----- x 100%, where: C A - the proportion of active legal entities covered by the employee's compulsory accident insurance system, with the exception of government agencies; B - number of valid compulsory accident insurance contracts for employees (data from the National Bank of the Republic of Kazakhstan); C - the number of active legal entities, excluding government agencies (data from the Bureau of National Statistics). The unit of measurement is a percentage. The frequency is annual.

Comments and restrictions:	-
6. Data availability and disaggregation
Data availability and gaps:	The website of the Ministry of Labor and Social Protection of the Population of the Republic of Kazakhstan contains information on the number of legal entities that have compulsory accident insurance contracts for employees.
The level of disaggregation:	-
7. Comparability with international data/standards	-
8. References and documentation	The Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan "On compulsory insurance of an employee against accidents in the performance of his labor (official) duties"